

Sustainability Policy

Who we are

Promotora Neptuno is a Colombian-German Travel Agency, specialized in the organization of individual and group trips in Colombia for international tourists and corporative trips in the national market. Our main value is the honesty among each other in our group and with our customers and suppliers.

Commitment with the environment

Minimize the negative impact on the environment through all the value chain in the company (inside the office, each one with their own relatives and out of the office), preserving natural resources and biodiversity, through the accomplishment of good practices.

Commitment with the cultural heritage

Promote the cultural heritage of the region and the country and ensure that our tours conserve and show the authenticity of the cultural heritage of the country.

Commitment with the community & corporate social responsibility

Ensure that our touristic tours fairly involve the local community in order to create employment and improve the quality of life, and promoting the inclusion of the local community in all our activities, always respecting and promoting the human rights and good working conditions. Furthermore, Promotora Neptuno is committed to CSR (corporate social responsibility) with its employees and providers, within continuous improvement.

Commitment against the sexual and commercial exploitation of children and teenagers (ESCNNA)

Promotora Neptuno rejects the exploitation, sexual abuse and any other form of abuse of children in accordance with the provisions of Law 679 of 2001.
